Press & marketing:

When Chronos met C.J. Catlizer they asked themselves 'What is Truthfulness?'

In 2007 and 2008 Nick Klimenko and Dimitriy Neschadim formed a duo and composed an album with ambient, ethnic influences and chillout trance vibrations.

'Quid est Veritas?' is the musical outcome of an intensive cooperation, 11 tracks build upon etnic rythms and influences of ancient cultures.

Their inspiration is coming from traveling, meditation and sacral & esoterical ideas.

Music & people are combined in one source of vision & slogan - "Music for the awakening consciousness"

Chronos is usually portrayed through an old, wise man with a long, gray beard, such as "Father Time."
'Quid est Veritas?' is a musical journey through eternal time with strong vibes.

Artist profile:

Chronos is the musical creation from talented musician & producer Nick Klimenko (aka dj Shankar) also known as the Hologram & Secret Trick trance projects in the past from Moscow, Russia.

Since 2001 the project brings lots of sacral & esoterical ideas through audio-visual performances, music & people combined in one source of vision & slogan - "Music for awakening consciousness"

The way of Chronos paths between ambient/ethnic influences and chillout/trip trance vibrations.

The word CHRONOS comes from the ancient greek language and translates like "Time". Like internity invisible by mind engine, symbol of our evolution.

In 2007: the first debut album "Steps To The Great Knowledge" was released by Sunline rec, Canada.

Moscow based musician Dimitriy Neschadim aka. C.J. Catalizer is joining the project with new fresh ideas & sounds.

The artists are working on the second Chronos album - "Quid Est Veritas?" which will be released in early 2009 at Ajana Records. After finishing the album the artists decide to go separate again with their own musical creation & now Chronos is again the solo project of Nick Klimenko.

The music of Chronos project is aired on tv ("Screen 5" channel in Moscow), and on different radioshows ("Signs" by Volodia dj Fonar (Moscow), Bulgarian radio - www.radio.powernet.bg - (official presentation of debut album), played by many dj's around the world (Germany, Macedonia, Israel, Canada, Greece, America).

Now Chronos is one of the most serious & respected live acts in Moscow, Russia. Chronos has played with artists like Asura, Abacus, Aes Dana, Shulman, Jaia, Scann Tec, Unstable Elements, Khooman, Koan etc. And the way to it are steps, those we are making day by day.
